During this meeting the commissioners discussed a number of issues that pertain to the Commission's grant making process. These topics include:

- Should there be a maximum amount or not, what should the funding range be?
- What sized organizations should be considered?
- What should the rules about fiscal agents be?
- Should the CPC make grants to individuals?
- How with the CPC determine the costs and benefits of a proposal?
- What should the goals of the organizations be?

The Committee made no final decisions during this meeting, the objective was to start the discussion on the grant making process and to give the Commissioners ideas to consider and research for future discussions.

No motions were passed or voted on during this meeting.
